DIVISION OF WASTE MANAGEMENT

NOTICE

2006 LANDFILL OPERATOR AND MANAGER CERTIFICATION SCHOOLS

The Division of Waste Management's annual training and certification program for Landfill Operators will be held April 19, 20, and 21, 2006; certification for Landfill Managers will be held May 17, 18, and 19, 2006. Classes will be held at the Franklin County Extension Office located at 101 Lakeview Court in Frankfort, KY. The objectives of this program are to promote environmentally sound solid waste practices and train landfill operators and managers. The school will contain sessions on how to manage solid wastes; landfill planning, design and construction; landfill operations, safety and health issues; landfill management; monitoring landfills; permitting and regulatory compliance. Upon successful completion of the course, class participants will become certified for five years. Classes usually run from 8:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. each day. Please arrive on time to sign in each day prior to class.

WHO MUST ATTEND: All landfill facilities in Kentucky must have a certified operator and manager. Closed landfills must have a certified manager during the 2-year closure period. If you were granted interim status, or if your certification expires on or before December 31, 2006, you MUST register to attend one of the schools.

Persons wanting both Operator and Manager certifications need to attend the Managers course only. Attendance priority will be given to individuals who have been granted interim status and to operators and managers needing certification due to expiration.

REGISTRATION: To make class reservations, complete and return the attached application for certification form (DEP 6031), registration form, and appropriate fee, to:
